++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny in the west. Mist and low cloud in east.

Today:
A dry day with sunny spells developing in many areas. However, it will be a grey and misty start for some especially for Lanarkshire, although most of this should clear by late morning. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Low cloud and mist will start to spread west across the area again but most of Argyll will remain clear and cold, winds staying light. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Wednesday:
Cloud lingering in the east and rather dull here, brighter in the west for Argyll and the Ayrshire coast. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
A little bit of rain to start Thursday and stronger northeasterly winds, turning noticeably colder. A dry and sunny day on Friday, more cloud and perhaps some rain on Saturday.
